

ANU Centre for European Studies &
Centre for Arab and Islamic Studies

Islam and Europe: Culture, History, Politics

ANU COLLEGE OF ARTS AND SOCIAL SCIENCES
8 – 9 March 2012

The Australian National University's Centre for European Studies and Centre for Arab and Islamic Studies will be jointly hosting an international conference exploring the themes of Muslims in Europe and Europe's relations with the Muslim world.

Scholars specialising in Islamic and Middle East studies, European studies, and the wider fields of Humanities and the Social Sciences are invited to participate in this multidisciplinary forum. Historical perspectives and contemporary analyses are welcome in the following areas:

- Religious and cultural diversity in Islam;
- Muslims, civil society, democracy and secularism;
- Impact of Islam in European history;
- Impact of recent events in the Middle East;
- Cultural identities and the Arts.

Professor Neal Robinson, Centre for Arab and Islamic Studies

Offers for 20 minute presentations are invited for consideration by 1 September 2011. Please send presentation title, abstract of 200 words (max.) and short biography to Europe@anu.edu.au.

Convenors: Professor Jacqueline Lo, Centre for European Studies and Professor Neal Robinson, Centre for Arab and Islamic Studies

Venue: Sir Roland Wilson Building, McCoy Circuit (Building 120), ANU, Canberra

Enquiries: europe@anu.edu.au