

JOURNAL OF Law and Religion

SYMPOSIUM

*When Faith and Law Collide:
Revisiting Martin Luther King's Letter from Birmingham Jail*

HAMLINE UNIVERSITY
School of Law

SAVE THE DATE

THE 2011 JOURNAL OF LAW AND RELIGION FALL SYMPOSIUM
HAMLINE UNIVERSITY, SEPTEMBER 23, 2011

The 2011 Journal of Law and Religion Fall Symposium will revisit the story behind the composition of Martin Luther King's classic "Letter From Birmingham Jail," the questions it addressed, and the questions it continues to raise.

SYMPOSIUM EVENTS INCLUDE:

- ❖ A dialogue on the Letter with
 - John Harrington, State Senator and former St. Paul Chief of Police
 - Harry Boyte, SCLC field secretary and assistant to Martin Luther King

- ❖ Panel discussions on the sources cited in the Letter. Panelists include
 - Pamela Alexander, Council on Crime and Justice, former State District Judge
 - Rolf Jacobson, Luther Seminary
 - Howard Lesnick, University of Pennsylvania School of Law
 - John Mazis, Hamline University history department
 - Jack Nelson-Pallmeyer, University of St. Thomas peace and justice program
 - Timothy Polk, Hamline University religion department
 - Jim Scheibel, Hamline University School of Business, former Mayor of St. Paul
 - Deanna Thompson, Hamline University religion department

- ❖ Keynote address:
 - "Letter From Birmingham Jail—From Whom, To Whom?"
Carlton Waterhouse, Indiana University School of Law

The 2011 JOURNAL OF LAW AND RELIGION Fall Symposium is sponsored by the JOURNAL OF LAW AND RELIGION
Hamline University School of Law

Hamline College of Liberal Arts Department of Religion and Social Justice Program
The Wesley Center for Spirituality, Service and Social Justice

For more information, please contact Linda Berglin, Production Manager, JOURNAL OF LAW AND RELIGION, at 651-523-2082 or lberglin@hamline.edu.